Gentlemen:

This letter is in response to my receipt of the 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report- Second Notice-on Tuesday, June 30, 1998. It certainly got my attention ! (I am Janice Green's husband, and handle her book keeping and report tasks.) Immediately, I checked my records, and found nothing---then phoned our accountant, who suggested I phone your office to see if it may have been overlooked by the computers, due to the end of the year incorporation (11/14/97).

The accountant also said that no report was needed or filed for the 1997 Annual Report, since the Corporation wasn't in existence on 1/1/97. As a result, I have no record of Annual Report mailings, which would have given me a reminder to follow up and request the 1998 form on time.

I called your office Wednesday, July 1, and a gentleman advised that the first notice was , indeed, mailed. I asked if there was anything I could do to rectify the situation, and he suggested that I write this letter, stating my case, and sending this completed second notice form back to you with the enclosed check for $155. and request your consideration of acceptance.

I'm sorry for this late filing, and trust that the large late- fee will not be charged, as it would be a burden on this young corporation.

Sincerely,

William C. Green
