RE: P97000098768

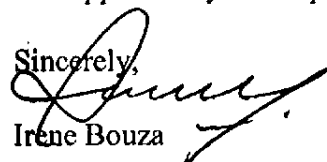

To whom it may concern:

To my surprise, I have just received a form for renewing the corporation called, an Annual Report. However, this form states that it is a Second Notice and that the amount due is $750.00. I have been informed that had I received the first notice, the amount due would have been $165.00.

I am not familiar with this procedure, since this is a new corporation. When I telephoned your offices I was asked to give my explanation in writing. You may understand that the first year of the corporation is usually a loss monetarily. This is the reason that I do not want to incur unnecessary expenses like the additional $585.00 you want to assess.

I ask that you please waive any late penalties you may assess and I ask that you please accept the fee of $165.00 that I have attached. I was unaware of the procedure, but I assure you that this will be the last time I will be late with such reports. I am always on time with all of my payments.

I do appreciate your help on this matter.

Sincerely,

Irene Bouza
