Attn: Annual Reports Filings

Dear Sirs:

I'm writing this letter to explain to you why I have enclosed my check for only $150.00 with my Annual Reports packet.

After receiving the packet on Friday, July 10th, and reading it over very carefully, I was totally confused not only by the packet itself, but also by the fact that the outside envelope stated in "RED" that this was my "2nd Notice".

I was unable to contact Tallahassee at that time because I had received my mail too late in the afternoon, so first thing Monday morning, July 13, I called Tallahassee, and told the gentlemen there of my plight, and asked him what had to be done next, since I had never received the "first Notice".

He asked me when I was incorporated, (11/17/97) and told me to type this letter to you explaining this matter and mail it along with a check for $150.00.

We at Kleen Sweep need and want to be incorporated, but if we have to pay the $550.00 filing fee at this time, we will just have to let it go. You see we are just making ends meet at this time, because business has taken off very slowly and we just don't have that kind of money to put out.

I apologize for my stupidity in this matter, and beg you to please accept my check for the original filing fee, and I promise I will be aware that this filing packet will be arriving here sometime in Jan, 1999, and will make sure that I get it into you at a speedy rate of return.

I would like to Thank You in advance for your understanding and consideration in this matter!

Respectfully,

Gloria J. McGuire, President
KLEEN SWEEP ENTERPRISES, INC.
