Gentlemen:

As per my phone conversation with your office today I mentioned that I received my 2000 uniform business report for the first time today in the mail but to my surprise it said second notice. As I mentioned to the Gentlemen at your office I never received the first report that you sent me. I don't know what happened maybe since the company went thru a name change last year if this has anything to do with this.

For this reason I am asking for you to please waive the late fee. If you look at my company's records all my documentation for taxes and fees have always been on time and never have had any late fees applied. The previous years business report were paid ahead of time that way I was never late. Please take this into consideration.

Enclosed please find check for $150. which is the normal fee and I have courier it to you for express handling.

Please note in future years I have already marked the calendar to contact you if by April, I have not received this report in order to avoid any penalties.

Thank you for assistance and understanding in this matter.

Sincerely

A & D Unlimited, Corp
