To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in regard to the enclosed filing of the 1998 Corporate Annual Report for Peoples Service Group, Inc.. Document # P97000100022

This is a fairly new corporation (November 1997) which is being run as a sister company to our main corporation called Shingle Care, Inc.. Although I am President, I was not in charge of the detailed paperwork because this is not our main business. Just recently this, along with many other details, were thrust upon me with very few dollars left in the treasury. I am now in the process of trying to clean up the mess and things are starting to look brighter.

I would like to keep the corporation alive and bring it back to health. Ergo, I ask that you accept my check for the normal filing fee of $150 and in the future we will keep all necessary filings current.

If this is acceptable and will work, please process the check. Otherwise, please return the check and we will terminate the corporation.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Brian D. Peoples
President, Peoples Service Group, Inc.
