To Whom It May Concern:

I telephoned your office last week when I received this "2nd" notice of the 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report. This was in fact the first notice I received because I neglected to inform you of a change of address. I apologize for this inconvenience. The lady on the phone told me to send a check for $150 with an accompanying letter of explanation. I again apologize for not informing you of our address change and hope you will accept the enclosed check (#1140) as payment.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Shona Tuckman
