Dear: Sammy Caldwell

I have been trying to file this annual report for many months now. I have had it returned to me twice and I am writing to hope that it will not be returned a third time.

As I have wrote and spoke to supervisors who assured me that there was to be no enforced late fee. An agent of the state concerning this matter, back in January, gave me incorrect information over the telephone. I was told that because my company was not even three months old that I would have to pay for 1999 not 1998. I never received a request for a 1998 report in the first place. Then I received one saying it was late. Please adjust the records to show that I am not delinquent. I am a new small business and I always take care of my responsibilities to the state.

Please call me if you have any other questions.954-963-0448.

Thanks, Rachel Spinka
