To Whom it may Concern:

I am writing concerning the receipt of a first notice of Corporation Renewal which I have not yet received, but did receive a second notice with a $400.00 penalty attached to it. The previous corporation document number that you issued is P 9700010115. I received my last corporation papers back from your office Date Stamped Nov 26 1997 335pm. The paper work never gave me a date of renewal if it did I would have sent in my fee already without having to be reminded at all, please give this some good consideration of not stressing the $400 penalty, since I did not get a first notice. If I do not receive a 1st Notice by End of May next year I'll call to verify, but I believe it is not my fault in this situation. I called your office on July 6th 1998 and was told to give this letter of explanation along with my regular $150 fee.

Thank you for your consideration.
