Dear Sir:

Recently, the above named corporations had their annual reports and filing fees returned without processing. It appears that you are requesting a late fee.

I am writing to request that you process these reports and waive any penalties for the following reasons:

1. These corporations were formed in December of 1997. The owners felt that because they were incorporated so near 1998 that the annual report for 1998 was included with their incorporation papers.
2. Neither corporation received their annual reports from the state. I called to request new copies after I was informed that the reports had not been prepared. I called in mid-May and a representative of your office told us to file and only include the $150 fee.
3. Neither of the corporations are presently operating and therefor the payment of any additional amounts would create a financial hardship for them at this time.

Your consideration is appreciated.

Very truly yours,
