Dear Sir:

I am late in filing my UBR that was due May 1 and am appealing for a waiver on the $400 penalty. As you can see from your records, I have paid my $150 registration fee on time in past years.

Unfortunately, my Father passed away on April 17, 2001, and that event both jammed up my time as well as occupied my attention. There were many estate details to settle-up, most of which had to be conducted on site in Virginia. I have attached a copy of his death certificate, as well as a copy of the front page of the Durable General Power of Attorney, showing myself as the attorney-in-fact to conduct all his affairs. I was also executor for his estate.

Due to my continued absences over the past couple months, my business has suffered badly. I am now back in control and getting all the paperwork in order. The $400 penalty would impose a real hardship on the Company, as revenues for the past couple months have also suffered badly.

I appreciate your consideration of my request and look forward to your ruling. I can be reached at 941-437-6482. Upon your ruling, I will immediately mail in the $150 fee.

Sincerely,

Paul W. Christensen, Jr.
