Re: Brut Enterprises, Inc.

Gentlemen:

Please take a moment to read this letter.

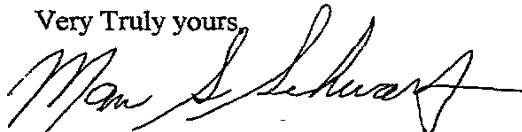

I formed the above corporation in 12/97, however, I have not yet opened an office nor conducted any business. I'm still developing idea(s), therefore, when May 30, 1998 came around I didn't realize that I was required to file an annual report.

However, your office did send me an annual report form, but due to an error by one of your employees, he/she sent the notice to the wrong address. PLEASE NOTE THE ADDRESS ON YOUR RECORDS WAS CORRECT, but a typographical error caused your notice to be delivered to 3619 Yacht Club Drive and needless to say there is no 3619..., and therefore never received by me.

While trying to open a bank account, I was notified the corporation name had been terminated. I immediately called your office, the typographical error was realized, and I was instructed to (i) return the enclosed second notice, (ii) prepare this letter, and (iii) enclose a check in the amount of $150.00 to cover the annual filing fee. I was further assured a $500.00 penalty would be waived.

Your courtesy is greatly appreciated. This mistake, nor any other, will not happen again.

Very Truly yours,

Marc S. Schwartz
