Dear Sir/Madam:

Upon requesting a blank 1999 Annual Report form from your office, I discovered that the corporation had been administratively dissolved. The reason that an Annual Report was not filed in January 1998 was that the previous President, Mr. Daniel Hernandez, was under the impression that none had to be filed in 1998 but in 1999. Since the attached letter states "A corporation annual report will be due this office between January 1 and May 1 of the year following the calendar year of the file date year"; Mr. Hernandez read this as to mean the year following the date the tax return is filed. 1998 was the first year the corporation began business. Thus, 1999 would be the Annual Report year.

Mr. Hernandez is no longer with the corporation. I am the new President. I have put a lot of time, effort, and money into this corporation. I would appreciate reinstatement. However, please note that a $900 fee would be detrimental to the corporation since there currently is no income (sales). As I state previously, I am trying to get the corporation off the ground.

Attached is the $300 I was instructed to send for approval consideration in this matter. Also, please note that I was informed not to file the current year 1999 Annual Report upon approval. Thus, I am awaiting your approval in this matter before filing the 1999 Annual Report.

Please mail all future correspondence to the P.O. Box address:

If I could be of further assistance, please contact me at the above address.

Sincerely,

Raul Velez
President
