The undersigned does hereby file the following pursuant to Florida Statute and does hereby certify that he has become a corporation for profit under and pursuant to the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is Computer Training and Researchers Inc.

ARTICLE II

The general character of the business to be transacted by the said corporation shall be and is as follows: To conduct the business of training, researching and preparing specified documents. To acquire, by purchase, lease or otherwise, lands and interest in lands, and to own, hold, improve, develop, and manage real estate so acquired and to erect, or cause to be erected, on any lands owned held or accepted by the corporation, buildings or other structures, public or private, with the appurtenances, and to manage, operate, lease, rent, rebuild, enlarge, alter, or improve any buildings or other structures, now or hereafter erected on any lands so owned, held, or occupied, and to encumber or dispose of any lands, or interest in lands, and any buildings or other structures, at any time owned or held by the corporation. To buy, sell, mortgage, exchange, lease, hold for investment, or otherwise use and operate, real estate of all kinds, improved or unimproved, and any right or interest therein. To acquire, by purchase, lease, manufacture, or otherwise, any personal property deemed necessary or useful in the equipment, furnishing, improvement, development or management of any property, real or personal, at any time owned, held or occupied by the corporation, and to invest, trade, and deal in any personal property deemed beneficial to the corporation, and to lease, rent, encumber or dispose of any personal property at any time owned or held by the corporation.

To buy and sell all kind of property, both real and personal; to borrow money, issue promissory notes and other evidence of indebtedness; to own, buy mortgage, sell or otherwise dispose of, and to deal in and with property of all kinds, as well as capital stock and shares of this corporation and that of other corporations, and to vote any share of such other corporations as may be owned by it, the same as a natural person might do, and to enter into such agreements, contracts, and stipulations and make such arrangements as may be or seem necessary to carry out the same, and to attain the objects and purposes herein expressed and intended; and to transact any further and other business, necessarily connected with the purposes of this corporation, or calculated to facilitate the same.

To become a member of and enter into any partnership or agreement for sharing profits with any person, firm or corporation.

To carry on any or all of its operations and businesses, and to promote its objects within the State of Florida or elsewhere, without restriction as to place or amount; and to have, use, exercise and enjoy all of the general powers of like corporations.

To do any or all of the things herein set forth to the same extent as natural persons might or could do, and in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, alone, or in company with others, and to do and perform all such other things and acts as may be necessary, profitable, or expedient in carrying on any of the business or acts above-named.

The intention is that none of the objects and powers as hereinabove set forth, except where otherwise specified in the Article, shall be in anyway limited or restricted by references to or inference from the terms of any other objects, powers or clauses of this Article or any other Article in these Articles of Incorporation, but that the objects and powers specified in each of the clauses in this Article shall be regarded as independent objects and powers.
