Subject: Corporate income Tax Return

Dear Sirs

I am very disturbed at the penalty imposed for late filing.

The filings are so confusing that I have engaged a CPA to prepare my returns for the Intangible Tax, and Corporate Tax, and God only knows what other weird and wonderful taxes that the politicians dream up.

I thought that he was going to file. He (the CPA, not God) thought that I had filed. Anyway the filing fell through the cracks. This penalty is really punitive, and can only anger businesses.

I provide no services, do not produce a product, and derive no revenue. Having to come up with $150 is bad enough, but to slap $400 penalty is nothing short of outrageous.

Is the State of Florida trying to discourage businesses?

I would like to hear that the penalty could be excused. Next year the CPA that I have to pay will ensure that it is not late.

Yours truly,

John D. Elliott
