RE: Approved Mortgage Financing, Inc.

Dear Ms. Hyman:

Last week I discussed with you the reinstatement of my company, Approved Mortgage Financing, Inc. Unfortunately, my company has moved its offices twice in the past year, and I never received a copy of the annual report, which needed to be signed and sent in. In talking to my attorney, he also advised he did not receive any copies of the annual report, or any notices regarding it being delinquent. Pursuant to our conversation, I request that the Division of Corporations to accept my check for $300.00 and reinstate my corporation without paying the penalties due for failure to file.

I appreciate your help and consideration in this matter and hope that you can understand that this was not a purposeful failure to file, but totally inadvertent and caused by the failure of the mail to be forwarded to my new business address after it moved.

Again, thank you for your help and consideration.

Sincerely,

Marcia Jawitz
