Dear Mr. Tayron,

Just a brief remainder of our conversation on the telephone, I explained to you that I do not have a green and white annual report in my corporation file, it was sent out by my secretary in the beginning of the year, but I do have copies of lots of different documents, what should I send to you to get reinstated. Upon which you asked me to send the red and white reinstatement application, a check for $150.00 and a letter explaining what happened and why you have not received my annual report.

In the beginning of this year my secretary was in-charge of the corporation file and according to her notes all the requirements for the corporations were up to date and all fees and reports were sent, paid and confirmed, she has Ms Teresa Brown, Ms Coulliette, and Ms Jackson's named written and checked off as confirmed in her notes. At this time, I have asked my accountant to locate the canceled check from the bank which was sent out by my secretary at the beginning of this year, I will send that out to you for your records, as soon as I receive it.

On November 13, 1998 I received a dissolution or revocation notice, when I called your office, I spoke to several specialist along with Ms Trevor and yourself and I was basically given the same instructions. So following those instructions, I am sending, along with this letter, $150.00 and the reinstatement application and I respectfully request the State to reinstate this corporation and waive any fees which might have occurred. Please let me know if I can send you any other documents form my corporate file to help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Huma Askari Zaidi
