Dear Leslie;

Per our conversation today, November 5, 1997, I am sending you another check for my corporate fees.

As you requested, my EIN # is 65-0721461.

As you may need to recall, I have moved from my original residence at 620 NE 17 Terrace, Ft. Lauderdale FL. Because of my separation and impending divorce from my wife, my mail has not been received. You had stated that my check had been received, but returned, needing my EIN number. I had been waiting to see if the check had been cashed and in my most recent bank statement before calling, hence the delay.

Thank you very much for your help and understanding. You are to be commended for the manner in which you have helped me. It is not very often that when working with a government employee, do they handle them with the compassion and willingness to help as you did. I am eternally grateful for your help. The address of 105 1/2 SE 12 Ave, Ft. Lauderdale may also be used.

Truly yours

Wm. B. _____
