- ARTICLE IV. Transferability of Shareholder's Interest: A shareholder's interest in this corporation is not assignable in whole or in part, unless a majority of the non-assigning shareholders consent to the assignment. An assignment of a shareholder's interest in this corporation does not dissolve this corporation or entitle the assignee to become or exercise any rights or powers of a shareholder. An assignment entitles the assignee to share in the profits and losses of the corporation, to receive such distribution(s) and to receive such allocation of income, gain, loss, deduction, or creditor similar item to which the assignor was entitled, if any, to the extent assigned. A shareholder ceases to be a shareholder and ceases to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a shareholder upon assignment of his entire interest in the corporation.
- ARTICLE V. Right of Assignee to Become a Shareholder: An assignee of a shareholder interest may be become a shareholder only if all other shareholders consent. An assignee who becomes a shareholder has, to the extent assigned, the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a shareholder under the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, and Florida law. An assignee who becomes a shareholder is also liable for the obligations of his assignor to pay for such shares as required by §607.0622, the Florida Statutes. However, the assignee is not obligated for liabilities which are unknown to the assignee at the time he became a shareholder and which he could not ascertain from the Bylaws or Corporate Minutes. If an assignee of a corporate interest becomes a shareholder, the assignor is not released from his liability to the corporation if and when acting as a director or officer of the company. On application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a shareholder, the court may charge a corporate interest of the shareholder with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment, with interest. To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of such shareholder's corporate interest. This paragraph does not deprive any shareholder of the benefit of any exemption laws that are applicable to his corporate interest.
