J

To who it may concern;

I Raymond Faulkner have just taken over Main Street Design Associate, Co. and in doing so did not realize that Toby Widett had not filed the corporate return form to you in May of 1998. Even though I owned half of the business, Miss Widett was Register Agent, President, Secretary, and Treasure. I had no access to any legal paper work, or the checking account. Miss Widett as of August 30, 1998 has resigned for the company officially and I might add taking to much out to much on her behalf of the company moneys. She states that she has filed all necessary papers and form with you.

I believe it to be not my fault not having the corporate report in to you on time and would hope you to see that the charges not be imposed on me for a problem I have inherit because of Miss Widett.

I hope you fine the report in order for this is all knew to me. Please find a check for $ 150.00 as I was told to enclosed.

Sincerely,

Ray Faulkner, President
