Re :- 2000 Uniform Business Report

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter as instructed by a representative of your department during our phone conversation on August 7, 2000. In November 1999, I moved my office location as you can see from the address change on the UBR and consequently never received the first notice of the Uniform Business Report. This may also be due to the fact that my previous landlord and I parted under less than amicable terms, and I am not clear if I am receiving all my correspondences. Therefore, I have just, in this past week, received my second notice for the Uniform Business Report. After calling your office to clarify these issues, I was instructed by your representative to send the original fee of $150.00 along with this letter of explanation in the hope that this matter may be settled, and that my registration with the State can be brought up to date.

Thank you for your kind attention to this matter, and if you need any further clarifications, please do not hesitate to contact me at (305) 324-1239.

Sincerely,

Ricardo Sandoval, M.D.
