Uniform Business Report
Division of Corporations
POB 1500
Tallahassee, FL 32302-1500

07/11/2000

Dear Agent:

Greetings. My name is Paul Papadeas, President (and everything else) of Paulie Boy Productions, Inc. (FL corp.) I called the Tallahassee office today and spoke with an agent who suggested I write this letter to accompany my filing. The subject is the lateness of my UBR submission. She indicated that I should send the filing fee of 150.00 along with this explanation. So here is the explanation.

Yesterday while opening a kitchen / desk cabinet at my home (which used to be my office) I came across my first notice of the UBR. I felt a bit drained that the report had been sitting there for months. You see in November 1999, I moved my office from home to a real business office with a real business address. All my business papers and the like were moved except for this form which somehow got misplaced in a "clutter cabinet" at my former home office desk. This is the reason for the oversight. Not an interesting story, yet true.

I am sending the original payment, as suggested, and plead that the 400.00 penalty can be abated. I am usually very good about making sure things get done (especially deadlines!). Please advise if this is (or isn't) possible.

My new address is listed at the top of this page. (Sorry I have no new letterhead yet). I thank you for your attention to this matter and hope this is sufficient to keep my corporate status.

Sincerely Yours

Paul Papadeas, President
