To whom it may concern:

I, Robert J. Watford, president of Air One Air Conditioning Inc, would like to supply you with the information necessary to facilitate the acceptance of One Hundred and Fifty dollars as payment in accordance with the original fee schedule.

As per a conversation with an operator on 7/20/2001, I was told to remit evidence that might explain why my company never received notice of either one or two letters asking for the appropriate fees. Enclosed you will find copies of a local supplier's invoices with dates and company name along with the company's address that was switched several times within the last six months. This is the only explanation I can give, other than simple postal error, as to why the letter or letters were never received.

Please notify me if this is acceptable, if you need any other documentation or if I can be of help in any other way to rectify this matter.

Sincerely,
Robert J. Watford
