Gentlemen:

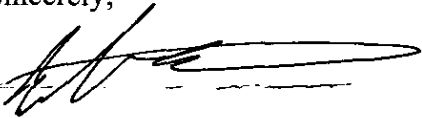

It has come to our attention that our Corporation has been dissolved by the Florida Department of State.

We never received any notice to renew the corporation and would like to renew this Corporation.

When the Corporation was formed, it was formed under a different name and address. We sent in the necessary paperwork to change the name and address. The name was changed but not the address. The notice to renew the corporation was sent to the old address.

We therefore request that we be able to renew the Corporation for the original filing fee amount. Enclosed please find the renewal papers and the filing fee.

Sincerely;

Reyed Abraham, President
