Dear Sir or Madame:

Attached please find my year 2000 UBR and two checks, one for the original $150.00 due in May and one for the $ 400.00 late filing penalty.

I am asking for relief from the late penalty as I have been in a life and death struggle with multiple myeloma (bone cancer) for the last year. I have survived an open heart surgery to remove affected vertebra in my spine, six months in a body cast, six weeks of radiation treatment (in May-June) and now am completing a year of Chemo therapy.

Needless to say, in May when this form was due, it was quite possibly the furthest thing from my mind. I just met with my accountant Friday September 8th, to prepare my income taxes for 1999 which are due 9-15-00 thanks to him filing an extension for me. It was just then that we become aware that this UBR was sitting in my tax files, unopened.

I accept full responsibility for its lateness and am prepared to pay the penalty if necessary.
