November 2, 1999

Dear Sirs:

Today I received this letter stating that our Corporation had been dissolved for the listed reasons.

I immediately called and talked to Kathy, who instructed me to write this letter and forward it back to you.

I wrote the 1st letter in September after getting off the phone with the gentleman in your Department and mailed it off. It was rejected because in haste I had forgotten to sign it and forgot the Tax ID number. I immediately filled it out and had returned it prior to the 30 days being up.

It was sent back again. Kathy informed me to type this letter stating the above transactions and showing that everything was done prior to the 30 days limitations and that it should be reinstated.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Mary
Mary Hickey
