To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed is Superior Sports Cars Unlimited application for reinstatement and the explanation why our annual report was not filed.

As of April, 1999, the company had not received the annual report packet. In May, we called the Florida Dept. Of State and advised them that we had not received the packet, they in turn informed us that as of that date, we owed a late fee. We explained the situation to them, they told us, they would be mailing us another packet. When we received the packet, we were supposed to write a letter of explanation and to pay the $170.00 filing fee. We never received the packet.

However, instead we received the certificate of administrative dissolution of revocation. We are completely unaware of how to file our annual corporation report without the required form.

Please be advised that we are mailing this letter in reinstatement form with good intentions and we hope that you will take this into consideration when reviewing our application.

If you have any further questions, please contact me at the below listed number.

Sincerely,
