The shareholders reserve the power to adopt bylaws and to prescribe in any bylaws that such bylaws shall not be altered, amended, or repealed by the Board of Directors.

Article XII - Indemnification

The Corporation shall indemnify any officer, director or employee or former officer, director or employee, to the full extent permitted by law for their actions or conduct taken in good faith on behalf of the Corporation. Without limiting the foregoing, the Corporation is authorized to indemnify its officers, directors and employees as follows:

- (a) Any person made a party to any action, suit or proceeding, by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate representative is or was a director, officer or employee of the Corporation, or of any corporation in which he served as such at the request of the Corporation, shall be indemnified by the Corporation against any judgments, fines, penalties or expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of such action, suit or proceedings, or in connection with any appeal therein, except in relation to matters as to which it shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding, or in connection with any appeal therein that such officer, director or employee is liable for gross negligence or outrageous misconduct in the performance of his duties.

- (b) The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any officer, director or employee may be entitled apart from the provisions of this section.
- (c) The amount of indemnity to which any officer, director, or employee may be entitled shall be fixed by the Board, except that in any case where there is no disinterested majority of the Board available, the amount shall be fixed by majority vote of the shareholders.

Article XIII - Amendment

This Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, or any Amendment hereto, and any right conferred upon the shareholders is subject to this reservation.
