Dear Sirs,

I called your office today regarding a Fictitious Name Registration letter and certificate that was not received and also enquired about my UBR form. Your agent informed me that the UBR form had been returned to you because it could not be delivered, and told me to act immediately because of the May 1st filing deadline.

Enclosed is my completed UBS form and a check for $ 150; my current business and mailing addresses are shown. I am asking that the late filing penalty be waived on this occasion because of the problem of the undelivered mail due to my change of business and mailing addresses last year.

Sincerely yours,

C. G. R. Barrett
