Dear Mr. Shivers:
RE: Hal Maintenance Corporation

We received your letter dated April 1, 2003 only today. The taxpayer has a problem with mail delivery, this letter was brought to him by one of the neighbors only today. It was delivered to someone else on the same street.
We are enclosing herewith UBR report for the previous year along with a check for $150.00 and UBR for this year 2003(the original was never received) along with a check for $150.00
We ask you kindly to waive the reinstatement fee for the previous year. The taxpayer was out of the country from January till April 2002 , in Poland, attending to his very sick mother, and someone in his household received last year report and since that person did not know what to do with this report , she did her best, mailed it back to you with a check for $150.00 but the check was not payable to you. Since you returned all this to the taxpayer address, and the taxpayer was not back from Poland yet, the report was simply filed somewhere and after the taxpayer returned back he did not even realize that the report was never filed.
We are asking you to do your best to waive the penalty for the previous year and reinstate Hal Maintenance Corporation.
As you indicated in your letter we are enclosing the total of $300.00 for these two years.

Looking forward to you reply,

Sincerely,

Yolanda M Czerwinski EA
Accountant for Hal Maintenance Corporation
