For so long as the loan from the Mortgage Lender to the Corporation (the "First Mortgage Loan") is outstanding, in order to preserve and ensure its separate and distinct corporate identity, in addition to the other provisions set forth in this certificate of incorporation, the Corporation shall conduct its affairs in accordance with the following provisions:

1. The Board must include one (1) Independent Director.
2. The purpose of the Corporation shall be limited to owning and managing the Property, entering into the loan agreement and other loan documents with the holder of the First Mortgage Loan and engaging in incidental activities in connection with the foregoing, and the Corporation shall not engage in any other business or activity.

3. The ability of the Corporation to incur indebtedness other than the First Mortgage Loan shall be limited to liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business which are related to the ownership and operation of the Property and not outstanding for more than sixty (60) days.

8. It shall maintain its depository accounts separate from those of any other person or entity; provided, however, that the Corporation may participate in a master bank account program whereby the funds of the Corporation are swept into a master account so long as the Corporation causes the depository bank to maintain separately-identifiable accounting records for the funds deposited into the master bank account by the Corporation and, provided, further, that nothing in this Item 8 shall relieve the Corporation from its obligation to maintain corporate records and books of account under and pursuant to the requirements of the immediately preceding Section 7.

9. The Board shall hold appropriate meetings (or act by unanimous consent) to authorize all appropriate corporate actions.

10. It shall observe all corporate formalities.

11. It shall not commingle assets with those of any other person or entity and it shall hold all of its assets in its own name.

12. It shall conduct its own business in its own name.

13. It shall maintain separate financial statements showing its assets and liabilities separate and apart from those of any other person or entity.

17. It shall not guarantee or become obligated for the debts of any other person or entity, including its any affiliate, or hold out its credit as being available to satisfy the obligations of any other person or entity.

22. It shall not acquire the obligations or securities of its affiliates or its shareholders.

23. It shall pay the salaries of its employees from its own funds.

24. It shall maintain a sufficient number of employees in light of its contemplated business operations.

25. It shall maintain adequate capital in light of its contemplated business operations.

26. It shall not amend the provisions specified in Article VII and/or Article IX of these Articles of Incorporation without the consent of the Mortgage Lender, or, after the securitization of the First Mortgage Loan, only if the Corporation receives (i) confirmation from each of the applicable rating agencies that such amendment would not result in the qualification, withdrawal or downgrade of any securities rating and (ii) approval of such amendment by the Mortgage Lender or its assigns.

27. There shall be no transfer of any direct or indirect ownership interest in the Corporation such that the transferee owns, in the aggregate with the ownership interests of its affiliates and family members in the Corporation, more than a 49% interest in the Corporation, unless such transfer is conditioned upon the delivery of an acceptable non-consolidation opinion to the holder of the First Mortgage Loan and to any applicable rating agency concerning, as applicable, the Corporation, the new transferee and/or their respective owners.

28. The unanimous consent of the entire Board (including the consent of the Independent Director) is required for the Corporation to:

b. Seek or consent to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator, custodian or any similar official for the Corporation or any substantial portion of its properties;

c. Make any assignment for the benefit of the Corporation's creditors; or

d. Take any action in furtherance of any of the foregoing.

For purpose of this Article VII, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"affiliate" means any person controlling or controlled by or under common control with the parent, including, without limitation (i) any person who has a familial relationship, by blood, marriage or otherwise with any director, officer or employee of the Corporation, its parent, or any affiliate thereof and (ii) any person which receives compensation for administrative, legal or accounting services from the Corporation, its parent or any affiliate.

"control" means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of management, policies or activities of a person or entity, directly or indirectly, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise; and the terms "controlling" and "controlled" have meanings correlative to the foregoing.

"Independent Director" means a director of the Corporation who is not at the time of initial election and has not been at any time during the preceding five (5) years: (a) a stockholder, director, officer, employee, partner, attorney or counsel of the Corporation or any affiliate of the Corporation; (b) a customer, supplier or other person who derives more than 10% of its purchases or revenues from its activities with the Corporation or any affiliate of the Corporation; (c) a person or entity controlling or under common control with any such stockholder, partner, customer, supplier or other person; or (d) a member of the immediate family of any such stockholder, director, officer, employee, partner, customer, supplier or other person.

"parent" means any other corporation owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, fifty percent (50%) or more of the voting stock of the Corporation.

"person or entity" means any individual, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, association, joint stock company, trust (including any beneficiary thereof), unincorporated organization, or government or any agency or political subdivision thereof.

ARTICLE VIII

INDEMNIFICATION

1. Indemnification. Every director and officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted or authorized by current or future legislation or judicial or administrative decisions (but, in the case of any such future legislation or decisions, only to the extent that it permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior to such legislation or decisions) against all expenses and liabilities, including attorneys' fees, reasonably incurred by, or imposed upon him in connection with any threatened, pending or completed civil, criminal, administrative or investigative proceeding (the "Proceeding") to which he may be a party, or in which he may become involved as a witness, by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the Corporation, whether or not he is a director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, except in such cases where the director or officer is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his duties; provided that in the event of a settlement, indemnification shall apply only when the Board approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interests of the Corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, any other right of indemnification to which a director or officer may be entitled. The Corporation is specifically authorized to purchase insurance for such indemnification. Each director or officer of the Corporation to whom indemnification rights under this Article VIII have been granted shall be referred to as an "Indemnified Person".

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation shall indemnify an Indemnified Person in connection with a Proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such Indemnified Person only if authorization for such Proceeding (or part thereof) was not denied by the Board prior to sixty (60) days after receipt of notice thereof from such person.

2. Advance of Costs, Charges and Expenses. Costs, charges and expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an Indemnified Person in defending a Proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted or authorized by current or future legislation or current or future judicial or administrative decisions (but, in the case of any such future legislation or decisions only to the extent that it permits the Corporation to provide broader rights to advance costs, charges and expenses than permitted prior to such legislation or decisions) in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Indemnified Person to repay all amounts so advanced in the event that it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article and upon such other terms and conditions as the Board may deem appropriate. The Corporation may, upon approval of the Indemnified Person, authorize the Corporation's counsel to represent such person in any Proceeding, whether or not the Corporation is a party to such Proceeding. Such authorization may be made by the Board, including directors who are parties to such Proceeding.

3. Procedure For Indemnification. Any indemnification or advance under this Article shall be made promptly and in any event within sixty (60) days, upon the written request of the Indemnified Person. The right to indemnification or advances as granted by this Article shall be enforceable by the Indemnified Person in any court of competent jurisdiction, if the Corporation denies such request under this Article, in whole or in part, or if no disposition thereof is made within sixty (60) days. Such Indemnified Person's costs and expenses incurred in connection with successfully establishing his right to indemnification, in whole or in part, in any subsection shall also be indemnified by the Corporation. It shall be a defense to any such action that the claimant has not met the standard of conduct, if any, required by current or future legislation or by current or future judicial or administrative decisions for indemnification (but, in the case of any such future legislation or decisions, only to the extent that it does not impose a more stringent standard of conduct than permitted prior to such legislation or decisions), but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including the Board or any committee thereof or its independent legal counsel) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct, if any, nor the fact that there has been an actual determination by the Corporation (including the Board or any committee thereof or its independent legal counsel) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

4. Survival of Indemnification. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any agreement, vote of disinterested directors or recommendation of counsel or otherwise, both as to actions in such person's official capacity and as to actions in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to an Indemnified Person who has ceased to be a director and/or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. All rights to indemnification under this Article shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each Indemnified Person who serves or served in such capacity at any time while this Article is in effect. Any repeal or modification of this Article or any repeal or modification of relevant provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act or any other applicable laws shall not in any way diminish any rights to indemnification of such Indemnified Person, or the obligations of the Corporation arising hereunder, for claims relating to matters occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

5. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (including serving as a fiduciary of an employee benefit plan), against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII or of the applicable provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act.

6. Savings Clause. If this Article or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Corporation shall nevertheless indemnify each Indemnified Person as to costs, charges and expenses (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement with respect to any Proceeding, including an action by or in the right of the Corporation, to the full extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Article that shall not have been invalidated and as permitted by applicable law.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES

Subject to the provisions of Article VII, amendments to these Articles shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

1. Notice. Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which a proposed amendment is considered.

2. Adoption. A resolution for the adoption of a proposed amendment to the Articles may be proposed by either the Board or by any stockholder of the Corporation having not less than ten percent (10%) of all of the votes which may be cast by all of the stockholders of the Corporation. Directors and stockholders not present in person or by proxy at a meeting considering an amendment may express their approval or disapproval in writing, provided the approval is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation within ten (10) days after the meeting at which the amendment is considered. Approval of an amendment to the Articles must be by either:

A. Not less than a majority of the entire Board, and not less than seventy-five (75%) percent of all of the votes which may be cast by all of the stockholders; or

B. The unanimous consent of the entire Board.

The Corporation is prohibited from amending the provisions specified in Article VII and in this Article IX without the consent of the Mortgage Lender, or, after the securitization of the First Mortgage Loan, only if the Corporation receives (i) confirmation from each of the applicable rating agencies that such amendment would not result in the qualification, withdrawal or downgrade of any securities rating and (ii) approval of such amendment by the Mortgage Lender or its assigns.

ARTICLE X

TERM

This Corporation shall have perpetual existence.
