RE: Corporation Annual Report Doc # P98000007023

Gentlemen:

Our address had changed as of December 1998, and we never did receive a Corporation Annual report form, to remind us to file with you, and quite frankly since we had given our change of address to the U.S. Post office, we thought everything was taken care of, however as I went to check for a status report, I saw that we had failed to file said annual report.

We would appreciate it very much, if you were to allow us to file now, as we not only did not know we had to file, but we had never done this.

We are a fairly new corporation and are still struggling to survive, so we would be very grateful if you were to forgive our late payment, and accept our apologies with the promise to do better in the future.

We are enclosing herewith our check # 4232 to cover our annual 1999 report, in the amount of $150.00.

Sincerely,

Cecilia Sosa, President
