Subj: Cargo Solutions Uniform Business Report (Ref: P98000008641)

Dear Leslie Sellers,

I received your letter, #300A00033569, and was extremely disappointed with its content. On several occasions last year I called your office requesting the 1999 Uniform Business Report form since it was not received. I was promised it would be resent but never received it. Again, this year the form for 2000 was not received so I called and requested the form. Finally one was sent which I immediately filled out and sent in as directed by one of your employees.

Surely there must be another solution to this since I have no fault and since I followed up on numerous occasions. We are a very small company and the total amount we would have to pay is considerable to us. Please reconsider and provide alternative solutions. We are willing to pay our fair share, but this seems to be excessive for something that was not in our control. Incidentally, I never received documentation that our company was being dissolved. Was notification sent? What address to you have on file? I solicit your understanding and guidance.

Warmest regards,

Norberto Caballero
President
