Dear Sirs.

On July 6th we received the second notice for 2000 Uniform Business Report in wich you are applying a fee of $550.00 including in this amount a late fee of $400.00 for not sending the payment on the due date. We were supossed to receive a first notice but we never got it and we imagine that it was a problem generated by the post office eventhough we have never change our address. Since we have been very punctual on the payment of this fee and it wasn't a delayed originated by us we are kindly asking you to reconsider not to fine our corporation getting at the same time the compromise for next year to send the payment on time either if we get or not the first notice.

Looking forward to have a favorable solution for our request.

Very truly yours.

Santa I. Nosthas.
Secretary and Treasure.
