To Whom It May Concern Dept. of State;

This is to inform you that I never received my yearly UBR corporate renewal. When it occurred to me I tried to do it on line however not having the renewal form I had no pin#. I called the division of corporations online information and they told me I should send in a hard copy and that I should send you a note as to the problem. An additional 400.00 will hurt me greatly especially as the corporation has had no activity hence no funds. I can't say that the error was on your end as I have been having a problem with the mail service for some time although I have not missed anything of importance until now. One example of the delivery problems is a $20,000.00 plus check I received that belonged to someone else. I personally called and delivered it to the right party. Any help you might lend to this situation will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
Curtis Sherrod President
