Dear Sir or Madam:

I have just learned that my corporation has not been renewed for the year 2002. I moved and I did not think to change my mailing address with the State of Florida. Because of this, I have never received my Uniform Business Report. Could you please check your records and see if the renewal forms were returned to you?

I have wrote an e-mail to corphelp@mail.dos.state.fl.us seeking some advice and they have told me to do the following:

I have attached a Uniform Business Report along with the $150.00. If it is a suitable solution, please accept these terms for I have made an honest mistake and I am seeking to correct it. Thank you for your time and your understanding in this pressing matter.

Sincerely,

Curtis F Hunt II
President

RE: Coastal Reimbursement Services, Inc.

PO BOX 1119
Hawthorne, FL 32640
FEI# 59-3744191

Dear Sir or Madam:

I recently realized that I was required to file the above referenced Uniform Business Report for the year 2002. I became aware of this through conversations with my CPA and looking up my corporate status on the Internet. I did not receive this form in the mail and was therefore unaware of the filing requirement as this is my first year of incorporation. The person who helped me incorporate listed herself as the registered agent and she has unfortunately dropped out of sight. I have enclosed a Uniform Business Report that I downloaded off of the Internet along with a check for $150.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Jamie Loper
