Dear Katherine:

My name is Eric Manin and I am an owner of Premier Parties Entertainment, Inc out of Gainesville, FL. I am also an owner of two additional corporations, Mr. Charter, Inc. and Premier Parties & Entertainment of Tallahassee. I sent in the companies' filing fees for the year 2000 earlier this summer for Premier Parties Entertainment, Inc. (Gainesville) and Mr. Charter, Inc. I included a letter to dissolve Premier Parties & Entertainment of Tallahassee along with the two other companies' filing fees. The check was never cashed so I called the Division of Corporations and was informed that the payment was not yet recorded with the State. I was advised to call back in a few weeks. Upon doing so, I was told that I should send in the original fee payment along with a letter explaining the situation. I am doing so now. Please accept payment for Premier Parties Entertainment, Inc. (Gainesville) and Mr. Charter, Inc. for the year 2000. In addition, note that we wish to dissolve Premier Parties & Entertainment of Tallahassee immediately. If there is anything else we need to do to dissolve the corporation, please let us know (upon calling, I was informed that we did not need to do anything and would not incur any charges for dissolving the corporation). If possible, please call our office to confirm receipt and acceptance of this package. Thank you for your assistance and help with this matter.

Sincerely,

Eric Manin
