RE: Late Filing

Division of Corporations

Division of Corporations

P.O. Box 1500
Tallahassee, FL 32302-1500

Dear Sir or Madam:

I first would like to apologize for the late filing of the 2002 UBR, for Polekat Unlimited, Inc. And would like an opportunity to explain the delay. The said corporation Polekat Unlimited, Inc. has undergone some structural changes. First off, Jeffrey T. Pollard has signed over all stock or ties to Polekat Unlimited, Inc., as part of our divorce settlement, October 2001. At this time Frances Lindeen, who happens to be my mother, became involved with Polekat Unlimited, Inc., in a limited fashion. We were trying to make a decision whether she would take over Jeff's position or look for outside investors. While we were trying to find an outside investor, we were pulled away from most of our business commitments, as my brother John Krolkowski, was loosing a vicious battle with Renal Cell Cancer. I took off most of last year to help with the care giving of Johnny. He passed away in December 2001. My family and myself are still trying to get everything back in order. It has not been easy, between the loss of my brother and my divorce from my husband/business partner. I was certainly not prepared for either. I know this is not an excuse, but I would like to offer it as an explanation. I have enclosed a check in the amount of $150.00, in hopes that I may be excused from the stated late penalties. Right now the late fees would be an unaffordable expense as I try to repair what is left off the corporation since the divorce.

---

Sincerely,

Pamela Pollard
President
Polekat Unlimited, Inc.
