15th May 2000

Dear Ms. Bailey,

With regard to our telephone conversation concerning the payment of the annual fee, here is a brief summary.

I called this year to pay for 2000 and was told that I hadn't paid last year 1999. I was very shocked as I had issued a check that had been cashed.

I am no longer with the bank from which the check was issued and had closed the account shortly after the check had been cashed. They informed me that after clearing the check they returned it and had failed to inform me.

When I moved I had all of my mail forwarded but never received any notice from the bank, also I didn't receive a reminder from the Division of Corporations so I was under the impression that everything was shipshape.

I hope you will see that there has been a complete breakdown of information reaching me and that you will allow me to re-issue the fee for last year and this year at the standard rate.

I enclose : Proof of new address
2 letters from the bank.

Thanking you for your time dealing with this matter,

Yours sincerely,

Gamal S Ahmed.

Dear Mr. Ahmed:

Thank you for contacting Bank of America Customer Care.
