To Sean Toner

Re: Review

Dear Mr. Toner,

Please find the enclosed documents regarding my Uniform Business Report. I respectfully ask that you review the reason for my request for a waiver of the late fee. As you can see, my accountant died suddenly on Feb. 22, 2003. His daughter, Jennifer, is the executor of his estate and when I received my business records back was when I learned that my report had not yet been filed. It was my understanding that my accountant had already filed the report in a timely manner, as I had given him the documents much earlier in the year and was assured they would be filed. Gary Edwards was not just my accountant, but also my friend and the last few months have been hard on everyone who knew Gary.

Please accept the enclose $150 check as payment for my report under the circumstances I have explained. It would be a compassionate and reasonable consideration on your part and I would be very grateful for your understanding of the situation, and reason for the late filing.

Thank you again for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Bruce Rawdin
President
