Dean / Roger

It has become increasingly hard to work with MZA and I have decided to resign effective July 12th. I understand that this isn't the expected date of Jul 31st but I will do my best to close out as much as possible before I leave. Please find the attached summary of every item that I'm currently working on. The items highlighted in gray are items I hope to accomplish in the time I have left and the items highlighted in yellow require your direction.

Also, I want to make it clear that I'm only available during normal business hours during the week going forward. I have been more than accessible to you both but the constant interaction is affecting my health and sleep so I ask that you respect this request. Also, I would ask that you communicate directly with each other instead of using me as a go between. I am sure this would be a more effective way to get things accomplished.

Thank you for all the years I have been with MZA as I have learned so much and the training has been invaluable.

Regards,

Andrea
