To whom it may concern,

Re: House and Mortgage Financials Inc.

I am enclosing a copy of a check that was paid to you for this year's filing fees, for your reference.

Further, on 10/05/2001, I called your office and was informed that my company was dissolved. This was following a call I received from a third party, informing me that my company was dissolved sometime in September of 2001. Your office informed me that I paid the $150.00 annual fee in July, and that was not acceptable, so my company was dissolved. Your office also informed me that they sent me a letter in July, which, to this date, I have not received. I however noticed that your office had the wrong zip code for my address, 33306 instead of 33308. I have informed your office of the mistake in the zip code, by phone, and I believe this has been corrected as of 10/05/2001.

My argument's bone of contention rests on probable disrupted communication between yourselves and my company.

I pray that you will acknowledge the $150.00 already paid to you to be sufficient a filing fee for the year 2001.

Thanking you in advance, I remain

Benson Kigano

Sincerely Yours >

Quel.
