Subject: 2002 Uniform Business Report

To Whom It May Concern:

I am returning the enclosed 2002 Uniform Business Report (UBR), along with a check for $158.75.

I opted not to send in the $550.00 as instructed in the report because I don't feel it is appropriate. My Accountant, James R. Kist, CPA, P.A., informs me that the UBR should have been sent to me much earlier in the year, which it was not, and the fees for filing on time was $150.00. I just received the report approx. two weeks ago, for the very first time this year.

I don't understand exactly why I did not receive the UBR at the correct time. I suspect it had something to do with the fact that the mailing address was incorrect. The proper mailing address should read as follows:

Universal Technical Services, Inc.
16057 Tampa Palms Blvd.
PMB 351
Tampa, FL 33647

I trust you understand my request for leniency on this matter and accept the enclosed check as final payment in this regard.

I thank you in advance for your assistance,

Sincerely yours,

Anthony L. Franks
President
Universal Technical Services, Inc.
