Re: 2000 Annual reporting

Dear Sirs:

It recently came to our attention that the filing for the annual corporation business reporting was never completed due to the fact that this application was never forwarded to our attention by the Legal department of our law firm. This was caused by several problems withing the law firm after our attorney, Marwin Cassel of the firm Broad & Cassel, pasted away back in October of 1999 and the firm spreading the files of all the clients around the office without them knowing who was the owner of the companies to forward correspondence and lack of attention on their part all together.

Therefore, we request your understanding to this mater and we request, that due to this unfortunate situation, we can be granted a one time exception on this to be able to file this reporting with the proper addresses and representing agents so that the annual report can be forwarded to us correctly and avoid the law firm that has caused us grief on this corporation as it is currently affecting our loans with banks and other institutions we do business with, which were the ones that noticed the problem to begin with.

Please have a representative contact me directly if needed to the above phone numbers and allow us this one time request, which we had totally and completely out of our hands.

Thanks in advance for your understanding and possible assistance on this.

Sincerely yours

pel

Dellingero N Dresident
