Regarding: Wagner Home Inspections and Wagner Spray Brite,
Uniform Business Report for 2003

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to ask you to make a one time exception to the filing date for these two companies. We are a small family owned company. In March of this year we hired our first "non-family" bookkeeper. She wasn't here long, as she just left our company last week. As I have been going through her "to do" box this week I discovered the paperwork that indicated we had not paid our UBR for 2003. I called her to follow up on this. She told me that we had not received a notice concerning the UBR until June 11th of this year. (Unfortunately, now I know she did not know to look for the form in April.) I can see by our records she wrote a check June 12th for the renewal, which apparently was returned to us. I believe had we received the notice in a timely fashion, our payments would have been made on time.

I am hoping you will accept the original amount of the UBR for 2003. I have optimistically enclosed the checks. If you will not consider waiving the penalty, please notify me immediately so that I may try to put together the funds to get to you. In the future, I can assure you, I will personally follow up on this notice in April. Thank you in advance for your time and special consideration of our circumstances.

Most Sincerely,

Kim Wagner
