Dear Sir /Madam:

I am in receipt of your letter dated June 19, 2001 wherein you have acknowledged receipt of Great White Apparel, Inc.'s annual profit report / uniform business report and payment of $150.00 towards same. You have also tabled that this report "has not been filed" and that a late fee of $400.00 is due to complete the filing since this return was received after May 1, 2001.

Therefore, at the advice of one of your agents (named Michelle) with whom I plead my case on June 22, 2001, this letter will serve as a written explanation for the late filing and the request to have the late fee waived due to extraordinary circumstances.

Specifically, the address you had on file at the Department of Corporations for the primary corporate contact, namely: Fraser, Jeffrey, (President) was on file as:

Fraser, Jeffrey
89 Felbrigg Avenue
North York, Ontario Canada
M5M 2M3

However, as of July 28, 2000, that address changed and became:

Fraser, Jeffrey
980 Yonge Street
Suite 614
Toronto, Ontario
M4W 1L6

Then, on November 24, 2001 that address changed again and became a US address:

#P9800032025

Fraser, Jeffrey
10 Mill Creek Drive, Suite K
East Greenbush, New York

And then on April 20, 2001, the address changed for the last time and became:

Fraser, Jeffrey
10 Kingswood Drive
Suite 200
Clifton Park, New York
12065

Although mail-forwarding was used for each and every move, something went wrong in the forwarding process from Canada to the US, and my Florida annual report/uniform business report document entered into a "mail abyss" for some time before it finally reached my new address in Clifton Park, New York, well after the filing deadline of May 1, 2000.

However, the report was in fact filed immediately upon receipt along with a check to the Department.

For the record, my new address has now been updated on your records and should remain constant for some time.

To that end and in closing, I kindly request that you file the Great White Apparel, Inc. annual report using the $150.00 previously received and waive the $400.00 late payment penalty due to the extraordinary circumstances surrounding this filing.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration of this case.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Neil Fraser
