ARTICLE IX

The following additional provisions for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation and creating, dividing, limiting and regulating the powers of the corporation, its stockholders and directors, are hereby adopted as a part of these Articles of Incorporation.

(a) The Board of Directors from time to time shall determine whether, and to what extent, and at what times and places, and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the corporation, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of the stockholders.

(b) The directors may prescribe a method or methods for replacement of lost stock certificates, and prescribe reasonable conditions by way of security, upon the issue of new certificates therefore.

(c) Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, no holder of stock of the corporation shall be entitled as such, as a matter of rights, to purchase or subscribe for any stock of any class which the corporation may issue or sell, whether or not exchangeable for any stock of the corporation of any class or classes, and whether out of unissued shares authorized by the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation as originally filed or by any amendment thereof, or out of shares of stock of the corporation acquired by it after the issue thereof, and whether issued for cash or otherwise, nor shall he be entitled to any right of subscription to any thereof; nor, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, shall any holder of any shares of the capital stock of the corporation be entitled as such, as a matter of right, to purchase or subscribe for any obligation which the corporation may issue or sell that may be convertible into or exchangeable for any shares of the stock of the corporation of any class or classes, or to which shall be attached or appurtenant any warrant or warrants, or any instruments or instrument that shall confer upon the holder of holders of such obligation the right to subscribe for or purchase from the corporation any share of its capital stock of any class or classes.

(d) No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of the corporation is or are interested in, or is a director or officer, or are directors or officers of such other corporation, and any director or directors, individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to, or may be interested in any such contract or transaction of the corporation, or in which the corporation is interested, and no contract, act or transaction of the corporation with any person or persons, firm or corporation, and each and every person who may become a director of the corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that may otherwise exist from thus contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation in which he may be in any wise interested. Any director of the corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the corporation and any subsidiary or controlled company without regard to the fact that he is also a director of such subsidiary or controlled company.

(e) The corporation shall indemnify any officer or director or any former officer or director to the full extent permitted by law.

(f) Directors may set salaries or other compensation of officers without prior stockholder consent or subsequent stockholder ratification, including setting salaries or other compensation for members of the Board who may also from time to time serve as officers of the corporation.

ARTICLE X

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the stockholders having the right to vote on any such amendment, and approved at a stockholders' meeting by a majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the directors and all the stockholders entitled to vote thereon sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment to these Articles of Incorporation be made.
