To Whom It May Concern:

While checking some information on my corporation on-line this morning, I was shocked to see that the last transaction for Lighticular was not the Uniform Business Report that I filed and mailed on the 15th of April. After researching my bank statements, I find that the check has never cleared. The year before, we had a problem with our accountant and I was forced to pay the late fee. I have taken responsibility for this matter and was very careful to meet your deadline for 2003. I called the number listed on your website and spoke to a very helpful gentleman named Rob. I am following his instructions by remailing my check and UBR form registered mail to the address on your envelope.

I will continue to monitor my corporate status, and hope that you will accept this second payment without penalty, believe me, I learned my lesson last year.

Sincerely,

Janet Privas

Vice President and Registered Agent
