To Whom It May Concern,

I spoke to a Department of State telephone representative yesterday and to the best of my recollection do not remember ever receiving the first notice for the year 2000 Uniform Business Report. I recently received the 2nd notice in the mail at my home address (the correct address of record) and am now looking at a charge of $550.00 for being late.

I have been a S. Florida resident and business owner for over 10 years and have never avoided nor been delinquent on filing fees before. Please consider this letter as an honest and serious plea for mercy and rescind the additional late charge applied for not being aware, nor informed, of the initial notice. I have included a check for the original charge of $150.00. If you have any questions, please contact me at the below number.

Sincerely,

John Offerdahl
