To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept the following TWO YEARS of Uniform Business Reports along with payment for this year (2003) as well as last years (2002) for our corporation

REZDRUMS2, INC - FEI number 65-0830357

We apologize for the delinquency of last years filing. It seems that we never received the UBR forms in the mail. Upon picking up our latest tax documents from our accountant, we found a large notice advising us to make sure and pay the UBR report before May 1st as it is our responsibility to file these and a large penalty will be assessed for not filing on time. After returning to the office and researching, we realized that not only had we not received this years UBR (2003), but apparently had never received the UBR forms for the 2002 year either. Further research made us aware that it had not been paid for 2002.

Immediately we located previous years of UBR(s), obtained phone numbers, and called to try to rectify the situation. Our operator informed that our corporation had indeed not filed the necessary forms and, apparently been dissolved.

We are writing to you today to:

- A) become current with all past due balances and reports
- B) reinstate our corporation
- C) ask that all late fees be waived.

Please note that in the five years of our existence, we have never been delinquent on State sales tax payments or any other municipal licensing, taxes, or filings, local or federal.

Again, the filing of UBR for Rezdrums1, INC, is the ONLY legal document that is not handled by our accounting firm. We never received any phone calls or letters informing us that we were delinquent in this filing or that our corporations had been automatically dissolved due to non-payment.

Please take into account these circumstances when reviewing these documents and rest assured we have made arrangements to have these forms filed on time regardless of their receipt in the future.

Please call me, Jeffrey Lee, if you have any follow up questions.

Thank you,

Jeff Lee
