Sirs;

This is to certify that the corporation listed on the enclosed Annual Report did not receive any correspondence or notice of any return to be filed for the year in 2004. We only found we were late on filing the enclosed annual report by accident while auditing some transactions this month. I called the Division of Corporations on 7/14/04 and by a recording was instructed how to download the required forms and also was instructed to check a box on the form for waiver of the $400.00 late fee but no box existed on the form. I again on 7/15/04 called the Division of Corporations and after a lengthy wait did get a live person named Barbara to talk with about this matter. She informed me to attach a letter certifying we did not receive the report forms to my report with a check for $150.00 to file the report and waive the late fee. Please find this letter as that certification of our not receiving any documentation for the annual report. We would also ask that the address for the registered agent be changed to read:

Baker, Frank A.
c/o Legear Enterprises Inc.
893 Hub Drive
Panama City, Fl. 32401

It seems our mail delivery person does not realize that anything other than mail addressed to this corporation should be delivered therefore mail addressed to individuals does not seem to make it to our mail box. Your help in this matter would be greatly appreciated.
